However, after I made the round of several hotels, I had understood that it was not so easy to find a vacant room. The hotel was booked up. I ought to have booked a room beforehand, which I failed to do. Shall I spend the night in the street? – I thought. As a result I had to check in at a 4 star hotel in any case.

Already about nightfall I found a hotel on the corner with a board "Vacant rooms". At once I went there. When I entered, I was welcomed by a very pleasant receptionist. I was shown to the room, was given a key and a porter carried my suitcases upstairs. After that I gave him some tipping. When I came in the room, I started unpacking my personal effects. Then I took a shower and went to bed. Next day I checked out of the hotel, caught a taxi and went on the excursion around Cairo.
